

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
2008 NAW Institute for Distribution Excellence Board of Directors and Officers.....	xi
Introduction	1
Part I: A Foundation for Objective-Based Selling	5
Chapter 1: Understand the Goal of Objective-Based Selling.....	7
Shift Your Focus to the Customer	7
Chapter 2: Mistakes Salespeople Make.....	9
Talking Too Much	9
Not Listening	10
Trying to Prove Their Product Is Better, with Features	10
Handing the Customer a Brochure—Too Early and Too Often	10
Giving Customers Pricing Information Too Early in the Process.....	11
Giving Delivery Information Too Early in the Process	11
Focusing the Proposal on the Price	12
Utilizing Electronic Communication Too Often When Building and Maintaining Relationships	12
Neglecting to Maintain Relationships with Good Customers	13
Conducting Poorly Timed, Unfocused, Ill-Advised Demonstrations, Site Visits, and Simulations.....	13
Chapter 3: The Job Functions of Wholesale Distribution
Salespeople	15
Help Customers Understand and Define Their Own Situation	15
Introduce Appropriate New Ideas.....	16
Help Customers Make Choices from Among Alternatives and Options.....	16
Facilitate Decision Making	16
Help Implement Decisions.....	17
Follow-Through.....	18
Make Customer Contacts Look Good	18
Handle Commercial Details.....	18
Paid to Perform Functions for the Customer	19

Chapter 4: Know Your Sales Environment.....	21
Multiple Decision Influencers	21
Hidden Decision Influencers	22
Access to Decision Influencers Is Increasingly Difficult	22
Sales Time Cycles Vary.....	22
Salespeople Often Are Not in the Room When the Purchasing Decision Is Made	23
Competition for Funds	24
A Major Competitor Can Be “Do Nothing”.....	24
Career Decisions Being Made	24
National Purchasing on the Rise.....	25
Brands Decreasing in Importance	25
Alternative Solutions Available	25
Specialized Terminology.....	25
Customer Decisions Are Often Political.....	26
Customer Inertia to Change.....	26
Significant Initial Sales Time Investment.....	26
Chapter 5: Learn the Objective-Based Selling Language	29
How to Create a Positive Environment	29
Chapter 6: The Four Keys of Objective-Based Selling.....	37
Details on the Four Keys	37
Applying the Four Keys	39
A Model for Inside and Outside Salespeople	40
Chapter 7: Focus on the Questions.....	43
Open-Ended Questions: The Basics.....	44
Funnel Theory of Questions.....	45
Follow the Trail of the Answers	46
Customer Reactions to Open-Ended Questions	47
What to Do After Asking the Open-Ended Questions	47
Chapter 8: The Objective-Based Selling Diagram— A Memory Tool	49
The Business and Personal Sides of the Loop	52
Navigating Through the Diagram.....	52
What the Diagram Doesn’t Show	53
Part 2: The Business Side of the Loop	55
Chapter 9: Prospecting	57
Who to Target	59
Customer-Focused Prospecting	61
Your Primary Prospecting Responsibilities	62
Additional Tips and Techniques	66
Why Bother?	72

Chapter 10: Determine Business Objectives.....	75
Time and Money Objectives	76
Soft Objectives Versus Hard Objectives	78
Why Are We Doing this Project at All?.....	79
Repeating Objectives Back to Customers.....	79
A Note About Qualifying Customers	80
Chapter 11: Identify Decision Influencers	83
Questions to Ask.....	84
Job Titles.....	85
Chapter 12: Establish Parameters	87
What Are Parameters?.....	88
How to Establish Parameters.....	89
More Parameters Questions.....	91
Getting and Putting It in Writing.....	91
Chapter 13: Prioritize and Negotiate Objectives	93
Specific Questions to Ask.....	93
Building Consensus	94
Chapter 14: Create and Conduct Scrum Meetings.....	97
Why Scrum Meetings: The Salesperson’s Perspective	98
Why Scrum Meetings: The Customer Perspective	99
When Are Scrum Meetings Appropriate?	99
How to Create a Scrum Meeting	100
How to Conduct a Scrum Meeting.....	102
Informal Scrum Meetings.....	107
Alternatives to In-Person Scrum Meetings.....	107
Chapter 15: Develop Alternatives	109
Think Alternatives from the Initial Contact.....	109
When Offering Alternatives	111
How Many Alternatives?.....	112
Chapter 16: Create Written Proposals.....	115
The Salesperson’s Perspective	116
Proposal Functions for Customers.....	119
Differences: Traditional Versus Objective-Based Selling Proposals	119
The “Wrap-Around” Proposal Concept.....	120
Key Elements of Objective-Based Selling Proposals.....	120
How Long Should the Proposal Be?.....	123
Additions or Variations.....	125
Proposal Templates.....	126
Chapter 17: Review Proposal with Customer	127
Problems with Phone, E-Mail, Fax, and Other Forms of Proposal Delivery	128
What’s a Salesperson to Do?.....	129

Chapter 18: Provide Proposal Support.....	135
Proposal Support Accompanying Proposal Documents or Reviews.....	135
Proposal Support Following Proposal Review.....	138
Demonstrations, Product Samples, and Site Visits.....	139
Chapter 19: Modify Proposal.....	141
Handling Requests for Modified Proposals.....	141
In-Person Review of the Modified Proposal.....	144
Part 3: The Personal Side of the Loop.....	145
Chapter 20: Personal Objectives	147
Specific Personal Objectives	147
Different Decision Influencers/Different Personal Objectives	149
Chapter 21: Building Personal, Professional Relationships.....	151
Work Both Sides of the Loop Simultaneously.....	152
Customers Must Like, Believe, Understand, and Trust You	153
Observe, Question, Listen, and Build Rapport	154
Personal or Professional First? Two Customer Types.....	157
Ego.....	158
Handwritten Notes and Thank-You Cards.....	158
Chapter 22: 10 Tips for Building (and Maintaining) Personal, Professional Relationships with Customers	161
Be Aware, Establish Rapport, and Keep Commitments	161
Match Their Style, Ask Open-Ended Questions, and Keep Pace.....	162
Communicate, Observe, Find Opportunities, and Use Humor.....	163
Part 4: Closing the Loop.....	165
Chapter 23: Obtain Commitment.....	167
Closing Techniques	168
Using Classic Closing Techniques in the Objective-Based Selling Model ..	169
It's a Commitment.....	170
Trial Closes and Buying Signals	171
Proposals Help Gain Commitment When You Can't Be There	172
The Reverse Timeline: A Special Closing Technique.....	173
Handling Customer Objections	174
Chapter 24: Follow-Through	179
Ensuring Customer Satisfaction	180
Prospecting Starts Again.....	181
Payment Follow-Through.....	182
Don't Be Wedged.....	183

Chapter 25: The Open-Ended Questions	185
Prospecting	186
Determine Business Objectives	187
Identify Decision Influencers.....	188
Establish Physical Parameters.....	188
Prioritize and Negotiate Objectives	189
Develop Alternatives	189
Review Proposals with Customers.....	189
Provide Proposal Support	190
Modify Proposal.....	190
Identify Personal Objectives (and Establish Rapport).....	191
Obtain Commitment (Close the Order!)	191
Follow-Through.....	192
A Final Word	195
Appendix: Customer-Focused Proposal Templates	197
Long Form Proposal Template.....	198
The Proposal Sandwich.....	201
Short Form Single-Page Proposal Template.....	203
About the Author	205
NAW Institute for Distribution Excellence Publications	207